Now Let Him Rest

Because you know
What he has gone through,
As the struggle that he had
While he was with you.
Now he has gone home
To get his reward,
And you can write
About him like a good bard.
Now I know that you are going to miss
Seeing his smiling face,
But don't worry, he is still smiling
With his Maker face to face.
Now he's free from all hurt and pain,
Where there's external
Sunshine and never rain.
Now he's safe and at home at last
And you must look to the future
And not the past.

Rest In Paradise, Your Nieces and Nephews

Acknowledgements

We wish to express our deepest appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown to us during the loss of our loved one. We are especially thankful for those who inspired us and helped us bear our sorrows. May God bless each of you. As special thanks to PruittHealth Staff and Mrs. Willene Armstrong (his nurse) for taking such good care of our dear Miller.
